DETAILED ACTION

Claims 14 and 15 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicants regard as the invention for the following reasons:

Claim 14 is rejected as being indefinite and incomplete for omitting essential steps, such omission amounting to a gap between the steps. See MPEP section 2172.01. The omitted steps are: providing a cooking medium to cook the food, and placing the basket into the cooking medium.

Claims 1-15 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-13 of U.S. Patent No. 6,165,525. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 1-15 of the present application differ from claims 1-13 in applicants' patent primarily on the basis of an obvious variation in scope, i.e. whether the basket is provided with a vertical vibration is considered to be an obvious matter of choice. Note that the basket in applicants' patent has a vertical, ultrasonic vibrating motion (see column 1, lines 14-16, 23-28 and 60-61 of U. S. Patent No. 6,165,525). Moreover, claim 10 of the present application is of broader scope than claim 10 of U. S. Patent No. 6,165,525. Thus claims 10-12 of the present application are obviously readable on claims 10-12 of U. S. Patent No. 6,165,525.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-15 are free of the prior art.
